I am looking for old clothes adults and children, old shoes, old curtains, old bedding, anyything old and not of any value to you anymore. I am a white femaile and been battling for a job for more than a year now and started serlling old clothes at low prices in the squatter camps which provide food on my table everyday. So please anyone in the east rand that could assist in this matter it would really be appreciated. I believe in honest living so I don't steal to survive everyday and the clothes I sell are marked down from R5 to R20 which they could also afford so we help each other. Unfortunately I do not have any transport so won't be able to collect the clothes. I thank you in advance and God!
