Sometimes it happens due to clashes. Few times it happens due to your mistakes. Occasionally it occurs due to the entry of a rival person. Some of the times it happens due to things you can not control. It could be their parents, their career, their financial situation. It could also be their health. Sometimes your love takes a deliberate decision to go away even though they don't want to. Sometimes you don't even know the reason.

Our ancient Veda's have a fascinating subject. Many classical scholars have studied a lot and developed these techniques. It is Mohini Vidya. Many gods and Kings learned these methods from our ancient saints. That brought drastic positive change in their lives.

Lost love back vashikaran specialist

One branch of this is Vashikaran. This is a powerful and effective methodology. You can attract anyone if you use it correctly. And this same methodology can be used to get your lost love back. Many Vashikaran Mantras are writing in our Vedas.

Om chamunde jay jay stambhaya stambhay bhanjaya

Bhanjaya mohay mohay, sarvaste namah swaha!

There is a method to use this Vashikaran Mantra. This mantra is most effective on Monday. It is more powerful if it is 2nd or 4th Monday of the month. And if 5th Monday comes in the month, then it is the best opportunity for you to use to get your lost love back.

So on Monday morning, you have to recite this mantra for the entire duration of your bath. After you have bathed, you have to greet and present the god Surya with jal (water). Then without eating anything, recite this mantra 108 times. Make sure you have a bowl of water with you while you are reciting the mantra.

After you are done, carry this water in a container or a bag. Take this water, and you put this water in the way of your lost love. If you are sure they are going to pass by a particular road, then put the water on that path. And if they cross your water, then the vashikaran mantra will take effect.

Get my lost love back by vashikaran mantra

If you are a female, then you have a different set of rules to be followed. You have to perform on Mondays only but after the sun sets. First bath and do not wear anything. Just cover yourself with a single cloth and start chanting the mantra.

Also, make sure you have a container of hot water with you. This water would contain sugar, honey, petals of a rose. Chant this mantra 108 times. Get up and take the container of the water. Put that water in the bucket full of water and then bath second time with that water.

Next day carries the same petals in a small cloth. And make sure your lost love sees you. If he sees you, then the vashikaran mantra would take effect. Make sure when he sees you, you would have those petals with you.

Getting your lost love back by vashikaran mantra

This Vashikaran mantra not only brings you lost love back, but also it helps to sustain it. It makes your relationship better than it was before. You would experience more spice between both of you.

There would be more affection, care, and love between both of you. You would start enjoying your life like never before. Your life would be full of fun and joy. You would become more productive.There is one more very useful and powerful vashikaran mantra:

Om rhim clim chim Mohamaya Divyamaya namah

No vashikaran mantra is more potent than this. It can surely help to get you your lost love back Even this mantra has some tactics and techniques to follow. There are some set of rules. If these rules are used then only, this vashikaran mantra becomes effective.

In case of these ancient mantras, one this is very important. And that thing is knowledge. If you don't know the right technique, it is not going to work. If you don't know the right methodology, it will not bear fruits. Your all efforts will go waste.

You are supposed to use this mantra when the last night it was a full moon. This vashikaran mantra is effective but also very demanding. If you want your lost love back, then you will have to take some pain. You don't need to sit at a single place and chant it.

Lost love solution by vashikaran

You can chant this vashikaran mantra whenever you are traveling in a bus, train, car. Also can chant this mantra when you are standing in a queue, waiting for someone or something.

But you have to complete chanting this mantra 1008 times in a day. Also make sure that when you are chanting, the number of repetitions each time has to be an even number.

It all goes back to the techniques written in our Vedas. You want your lost love back that means the result would have two people. That is a pair, and even numbers all can be divided by two. And that is why you have to make sure that some repetitions have to be in even numbers.

Once you complete chanting 1008 times, you have to take a bath. Touch the feet of your parents, your gurus (teachers) as well as all the elders in your family. (if you can't do that physically at least do it with a pure heart in your mind).

When you complete this, make sure the next day you go near to your lost love. It is okay even though none of you see each other. But make sure you are inside 1 km radius circle from your lost love. As this geographical proximity is reached, automatically this mantra would start taking effect.
