Valiant World is offering a complete plug and play electronic distributor conversion kit for R3500.

Guaranteed to increase power and efficiency. This tried and trusted kit that is matched perfectly for your Chrysler Valiant 225 slant six engine to solve your ignition problems permanently.

No more battling with points and condenser. This is a self sufficient system that does not need ongoing maintenance.

No more struggling with dead outdated 1970s modules. This system is current with full manufacturer support.

This conversion is a modern solution to a Valiant not starting or difficult starting, misfiring and poor performance.

In the kit you get an electronic distributor, new coil, new four pin module, new distributor cap, new rotor, new set of original plug leads and six new three spark plugs.

We install the system in two hours complete with wiring, mounting and timing for R700.
