The BlackBerry PlayBook was designed to let you experience that the way it was meant to be - with full support for Flash, HTML 5, and everything else a web without borders offers.

Video conferencing and shooting capabilities are second to none. With two HD cameras - one front-facing (3MP) and another on the back (5MP) - you can chat face to face with family, friends, coworkers and clients as well as shoot amazingly crisp video and images from the rear camera.

The PlayBook covers all the bases. It has micro-USB and micro-HDMI connectivity, 802.11a/b/g/n WiFi, Bluetooth 2.1+EDR, push technology and more. And of course, it's enterprise-ready.
