Want to add style and functionality to your home office or office? Then this beautiful 4 drawer, solid oak filing cabinet is for you. I purchased the filing cabinet in 1994 when I established my home office. I was looking for something a little more attractive than your normal steel, utilitarian filing cabinet and found a company that made this one for me. I originally paid R4000 for it and had a lot of joy from the piece. I am selling it because I am no longer using hanging files and would like to de-clutter my office. A new steel 4 drawer filing cabinet sells for R1699, so for less than a R1000 more, you can have a timeless solid wooden piece that will last.
