For Grades 1 - 9. If a Child is exposed to this GAME, they will understand some of the things that they do to other students amounts to BULLYING and they will think twice before going through with it, for example: hiding someone's bag or calling someone a funny name or making fun of someone's dressing or sending a text or e-mail about someone, etc.

By the time a child becomes a teen cyber bullying becomes more prevalent as teens are using electronic devices all/most of the time. Violence has also escalated over the years.

It is highly interactive and affords parents the opportunity to spend time with their Children and the Child will be in a safe environment to share with parents any potential problems, this assists later in life with communication between the child and parent. Children are also equipped with the tools of how to handle bullying.

Furthermore children learn counting skills, reading skills and sentence structuring.
