This house is the ideal combination of space, luxury, security and beauty. It is newly renovated with a brand new designer kitchen, massive main bedroom and big swimming pool. You will feel at home and on holiday at the same time. There is a large undercover patio leading to the pool which is ideal for entertaining. The house is situated in a security village, but also has its own electric fence and alarm system with armed response by ADT included. The view to the south is truly magnificent and is visible from the lounge and main.
