Do you want to talk to somebody that understands the emotional connection between a property and a home?

Without the right help, buying or selling a home can be complicated and stressful.

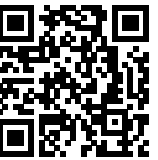

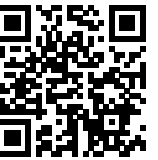

If you are serious about selling or buying a home, hire an agent with a proven marketing plan and a track record of success.

One who will give your home 100% market exposure.

Established in 1962 Huizemark or De Huizemark as it was originally known, has cultivated an enviable ability to steer itself clear through the various property industry storms that so often characterize this profession. Huizemark has had its fair share of success and endured tough conditions over its 50 years, yet have continued to adjust and evolve and have come out the stronger for it.

My name is Michiel Horn and I am a family man myself. I know how important the right home was for my family.

Contact me for that little bit of extra comfort, that you will not only be buying or selling a Property but a home that will be part of a lifetime of memories.
