I am selling my B&W P5 headphones. They are still in immaculate condition and well looked after. There are no scratches as such as it was always kept safe in the suede travel pouch. The leather is still in extremely good condition. The headphones was bought in 2014 and is only 2 years old. They really sound amazing and are professional quality headphones made for audiophiles and I can really not wrong these headphones. There are absolutely no defects and the only reason for selling is the fact that I want to try a different style of headphones that are over-ear (P7's). All of the items like the cable with volume control and the cable without it is included.

Please contact me if you have more questions on the P5'
