I have a 8kg Defy Tumble Dryer that is currently standing in my way as I hardly ever use it. From the day we bought it, we haven't even used it 20 times. The machine still has it original plugs and booklet. It doesn't make a loud noise when in use - very soft actually. This exact tumble dryer is currently selling for R 4479.00 and more in big retailers, I just need this out of the way and is asking R2000 but the price is slightly negotiable. We are in Greenhills Randfontein and the buyer must be able to.
