Mission 705 active speakers is a high end brittish loud speaker. Each speaker has its own amp witch powers the two 8 inch drivers. Low amplification can work well. Each amp has a rca input for sub out from a surround sound ;processor wich makes them perfect for front towers and no subwoofer is needed. They are just as good for stereo use on a good system. Standing 1,4m high they are huge and fills a room with music. Only 50 sets of these speakers were made in the world to commamorate missions 50th birthday witch makes them a collectors item. They are in very good condition and you are welcome to come and listen to them. Sereous buyers only please. Sms and e mails will not be repleid to. Phone calls.
