I have a 2007 Ford Fiesta 1.4i for sale. The vehicle is in excellent condition cosmetically and mechanically. Lady driven. The car belongs to my girlfriend. We are the 2nd owners of the car and it was previously owned by a family friend.

It has the following features:

Power steering, multifunction radio controls, factory fitted hands free kit. Airbags electric windows, electric mirrors. Light sensors, rain sensors. Central locking. Brand new mags and tyres fitted in december 2016. Vehicle was serviced recently. Full service history with Ford till the warranty expired. Thereafter i serviced the vehicle myself, all original parts used. Services were recorded in the books with some receipts. Spare keys, spare wheel was never used. Licence up to date.

The car is in excellent condition for its age, drives extremely well and its very light on fuel. Not a cent to spend. You will not find another in this condition.
