Bosch A Energy Rated 12 Place Settings Dishwasher in White

This dishwasher has the capacity to hold twelve place settings. The dishwasher has an A energy efficiency rating and an A rating for cleaning performance and drying. It has a half load option in instances when there is not enough soiled items to fill the dishwasher fully. The Economy cycle is a big plus point as it cleans the dishes to an A-rated standard. It takes care of the environment and one's budget by using less energy and water per wash. The Quick wash cycle cleans at 45 °C in a shorter space of time than the standard wash cycles, which is perfect for entertaining. The casing of this appliance is white and the interior comprises stainless steel which is the perfect material for durability and retaining heat. Selling the white model due to upgrading to a silver casing
