Hi all, we are urgently looking for any give aways for a young family. My brother lost his job 8 months ago and we have since helped him to get a job and they stayed with us until now. They finally got their own place to live but have little furniture, only a bed, fridge, washing machine and tv. Any donations will be much appreciated. Even food, couches, carpets and kids clothes ages 11 months (girl) and 3 yrs (boy) to get them started will be a blessing. We have helped with rent and a little food and gave what we could but there is still allot they need. Thanks to anyone who are willing to help as every small thing will make a huge difference in their lives to be able to have a normal life.
