The lodge, is set in sixteen acres of lush landscaped gardens and boasts five 2/3 person chalets, one family chalet and five walk-in tents along with plenty of space for guests to pitch their own tents. The lodge is sold as a going concern with all the beds, bedding, furniture and washing machines.

The fixed tents are shaded by thatched shelters; three with double beds and two with a single bed each. The Chalets, tastefully furnished in African décor, with tea and coffee making facilities, their own private patio and parking area, are set away from the tents for privacy.

The "Night Jar," recently upgraded and expanded, is a fully equipped dining area and
