Hi! I have a 1995 Suzuki Samurai. The interior is in leather and cloth. It also has a 1000cc original engine. Standard suspension. Manual Diff lockers in front.

It is one of the best 4x4 ever made. It also has a tow-bar. It has been redone and drives well. It have rust patches on the body though, please see the pictures.

The car drives very well though in-spite. The best thing is to Come see it yourself. The Kilos are on 63000 Km.

You are welcome to call, sms or whats app me on
