CERBERUS

SUPERB, DISTRACTION-FREE SOUND IN EVERY SCENARIO

Winning gamers need winning accessories and Cerberus is designed to help you secure victory in every scenario – and it's also a great headset for everyday listening! Connect Cerberus to your desktop, laptop or smart device to experience superb sound with brilliant detail and punchy bass no matter what you do or where you do it.

UNRIVALED PUNCH AND ULTIMATE IMMERSION

Large 60mm neodymium-magnet drivers. If you've not felt the power of 60mm neodymium-magnet drivers then listen with Cerberus – you'll experience unrivalled punch and audio immersion that's utterly convincing. When gaming you'll hear every gunshot and know enemies are nearby from their footsteps alone. Then, switch to audio for roomy stadium rock, crisp and clear spoken-word listening or movie soundtracks that sound so real.

ENJOY DESKTOP GAMING AND MOBILE FUN

Works with both PCs and Mac computers...You can forget compatibility worries with Cerberus because it works with almost any device. The 1.2m connecting cable is accompanied by a 1.3m extension with a Y-split that provides separate headphone and mic plugs along, for great compatibility and an overall cable length of 2.5m. The detachable boom mic is perfect for in-game communication – so you can chat and always be heard!
