2015 Nissan Sentra 1.6 Acenta - 13800 km - White - DEMO - After more than a decade, the Nissan Sentra returns to South African shores with an unprecedented combination of sophisticated style and bold next generation vehicle technology. It is striking to look at and a pleasure to drive, with interior space that rivals much larger vehicles.

The Nissan Sentra does not compromise on anything, but yet is surprisingly well priced. Proof that safety, style and driving pleasure do not have to cost the earth. In fact, it is already being said in some motoring circles that the new Nissan Sentra simply defies convention and offers top of the range features at a fraction of the cost. But don't let us try and convince you how good this Nissan is, simply come into our showroom and you can judge for!
