Habb-e-Papita is a Unani medicine. It is beneficial for gastric and low appetite problems. It stimulates appetite and improves digestion. It eliminates the problem of sour belching. It is a unique medicine for the complaints of indigestion, constipation, and many types of stomach disorders. Papaya has been used as the main ingredient in this. It especially eliminates the pain in the stomach. This ends the process of gas formation. It gives strength to the body and eliminates the pain in the stomach. If gas is being produced, it also rejects it. It also eliminates constipation. It digests food and accelerates digestion.
