As a traditional healer, I may take on both good, bad, and negative energies that may come from being present in the physical world. In traditional healing, the physical and spiritual worlds are interconnected, plus traditional healers or herbalist healers are the mediums through which these worlds are communicated with.

In case you have been cursed or bewitched by someone, I have traditional healing methods that may remove all reverse curses, remove spells and hexes and also to appease the ancestral spirits so that you can regain your life back to normal.

I have direct communication with the ancestral world or spirits that may provide me with the wisdom and insights into the problems and how to heal them or appease the ancestors so that you can be healed.
