

Easy Love Spells With Just Words To Practice At Home +27739970300 (20 R)

anwar sadat Tel: 0739970300

Location Gauteng, Johannesburg

https://www.freeadsz.co.za/x-326500-z

Love Spell Chants Think of chanting and your mind could go to a few different places. One might be a scene of monks in a monastery, singing Gregorian chant. Given that the word chant comes from the French verb chanter, meaning to sing, this would be a reasonable interpretation.

Another might be to think of a magician, witch, or other magical practitioner reciting a lengthy and mystical piece of text in a monotone voice. Not quite singing, not quite speaking either. This is what most people think of when they talk about love spell chants. So is there any truth to this Hollywood-inspired image of the wise man or woman using just words to bring about healing, wealth, or love?

The answer, as is so often the case with the esoteric, is not as simple as just a yes or a no.

What are love spells with just words called?

I'm sometimes asked if I can provide Love Spell Chants, one that can be performed at home by a layperson. By now it should be clear why this isn't possible. The content of a chant, the actual words that are recited, are of very little importance. It's the effect they have on the mind that counts, and that effect must be combined with an actual magical procedure.

Love Spell to Get Over Someone

By the way, words that are not in the native tongue tend to work better for these purposes because words that are understood can sidetrack the brain. The ear latches on to them listen to them in an active manner

