Buying medical termination pills online can be confusing — there are lots of websites promising quick delivery and low prices, but not all of them are trustworthy. Some people end up with incomplete kits or fake pills and no proper instructions, which is risky.

If you want to make sure you're ordering from a reliable source, check out this easy-to-follow safety guide. It explains how to spot legit sellers and what a genuine kit should include.

A real medical termination kit should have 1 Mifepristone pill and at least 4 Misoprostol tablets, shipped discreetly with clear directions.

Also, if you're curious about how pricing affects safety, this related article breaks it down well.

Stay informed and stay safe — don't just trust any site out there.
