Started practicing traditional healing after I went travelling to my ancestral village. It was wonderful to see how so many people were sitting together to start.. This inspired us to practice it, not only for our well being but also to let others know, that there is a way to take care of one's love situation. Our passion for practicing ubusangoma did not stop with us. On 14th August, 1999 We started my own practice. And it has been amazing. I love the fact that this has brought us closer to an awesome bunch of people.
