Each Master's degree certificate comes with a corresponding educational file and a detailed transcript, and is obtained entirely legally. These degrees can be verified on the university's international website and have been certified by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. They also feature a QR code for easy verification. Translations of the certificates and transcripts are available in various languages. Physical copies of the certificates are also dispatched to the applicant.

The documents all include the student ID number, the central organization's approval number, the graduation date, and the central organization's approval date. Along with all documents, the transcripts are provided on a course-by-course basis, clearly indicating the number of credits completed. Additionally, the documents feature a QR code that links directly to the university's website, displaying the graduate's picture and details.
