BMW 330d e46 facelift, just did a trip to cape town and it did just over 16km/l. Just spent R7000 on new perelli tyres and spent R20 000 on injectors so thats sorted, the shocks and battery have also been replaced not long ago. The car is in everyday use, I drive around 180km per day with the car. The car has a very powerful engine that will tow a caravan comfortably. Its full house with cruise control, electric windows, 6CD changer,ABS, traction control, very powerful aircon with climate control, black leather seats, multi function steering wheel etc. I bought the car from the manager of jacaranda motors, it used to be his personal car. Its in a really good condition compared to other 330d's out there. Price is slightly negotiable because I spent so much on the car already. No chancers sms's or time wasters, cash only. Will consider a swop. If you cant afford to make a phone call then you will probably not be able to afford the.
