This is the newer production (2008) of the 87 Cheeta. Not s vintage gun, but a very nice gun at a reasonable price. I consider it to be in Mint to As New condition, but expect you to judge for yourself, and ask any questions before bidding. I offer a three day inspection on all my guns, since each person's perspective of condition may be different and my old eyes can miss something. However, I can only refund sale
