I have a black renault clio for sale. I just had new bearings done along with a new battery, water bottle, break disks, electrics and more.

Needs a little work done still mostly cosmetic, idling needs adjustment and needs new tires along with windshield has a crake in it, not big.

Interior is 100 % and has a radio installed. Electric windows for the front and aircon.

Car is driving i use it for work and all paper work is 100% up to.
