Menlo Park is an upmarket suburb in the city of Pretoria, South Africa. It borders other upmarket areas like Waterkloof, Brooklyn and Lynnwood. When it was first established between the 1950s and 1960s, it was the most eastern suburb of Pretoria, but the city has since considerably expanded eastwards. Today these suburbs are known as the Old East and can boast to have some of the city's most high-end residential properties. The Old East is characterized by established residential suburbs with mature tree lined streets and established gardens.

Menlo Park has a central position near the N1 highway, within easy reach of the CBD, is near major shopping malls (Menlyn Mall, The Club, Lynnwood Bridge, and Brooklyn Mall), and has a revamped theatre district with restaurants, cafés, and bars. The suburb is home to the University of Pretoria, and is also home to the Pretoria Zoo and the Pretoria City Hall. The suburb is also home to the Pretoria City Hall and the Pretoria City Hall.
