Good day

Im selling my Daewoo Lanos for 45k Neg,

The only reason im selling it is because im moving to the UK and have a job and everything that side.

The car is in mint condition brand new engine racing bucket seats in front and leather seats at the back redone hole engine is brand new except the the water bottle and radiator its a very strong engine makes 200KW on the wheels at a 1bar boost engine has got less than 2000KM on as it was rebuild last year November.

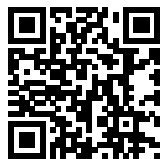

It recently installed new front brakes and discs, rear brakes, front shocks and rear shocks tires stil brand brand new.

It is very sad selling the car but got a brilliant opportunity in the.
