Sorry but trying all avenues.

Good day all, maybe not the correct place to post, but I know many members here are linked to other militaria and collectors groups. On 31 Dec my mothers house in Kempton Park was broken into and two full-size (29cm) kukris with 2 daggers each in leather sheaths were stolen that my late father got in Malaya whilst serving in the Royal Military Police in 1954. Both of the main blades have small nicks on them that I put there as a kid If offered these items please contact me. They are very similar to this design but with the addition of the two small daggers (Chakmak and Carda), Reward offered for recovery. Thanks Paul.
