

Apple ipad 2 dock keyboard (300 R)

The keyboard is amazingly heavy; it's carved from a single block of aluminum and seems to weigh about five pounds. It holds the iPad firmly, and is just barely heavy enough to stay put when you pull the iPad out. It would be awkward for carrying around. If you want a portable option, a wireless bluetooth keyboard is your best option to take a keyboard with you on the road.

The keyboard itself is basically Apple's keyboard with a few extra buttons where the function keys would be:

- Home
- Search
- Dim
- Bright
- Photos
- Onscreen keyboard
- A blank key that does nothing (!)
- Rewind
- Play/Pause
- Forward
- Mute
- Volume Down
